Description

The Aleksic and Associates Joint Law Office offers clients a progressive, innovative, approach and unique business strategy. Our goal is to support clients in the realization of their goals through the most effective means possible. The continuity of the work of the Alesksic and Associates Joint Law Office began in 1976. Presently, the law office employs over 150 attorneys, associates, advisors and support staff who are actively engaged in client matters, including two Doctors of Legal Science. Our team represents, and effectively protects, client interests throughout the Republic of Serbia. Our wealth of experience and the results we have achieved are reflected through the success of our clients.
