Uradi-zaradi

<http://www.uradi-zaradi.rs>

DESCRIPTION Uradi-zaradi is an online platform that allows busy professionals such as bankers, lawyers, developers, entrepreneurs, moms with small children and retired persons to delegate one-time tasks that take time. They can delegate them by submitting a request on the platform, with all details of that task (the location where the task is, the price of the task, a detailed description of the task with all the specifics and requirements of the person who is posting a it, and date and time when the task needs to be done). On the other hand, people who are interested in performing one-time tasks are submitting their application if they are comfortable with given perimeters.
